Gold's $700 'time window' shifts

June 15, 2007: 02:15 PM EST

IN THE CNNmoney ARTICLE ABOVE, PETER GRANDICH WAS QUOTED AS SAYING:

All told, "no single factor has a more winning percentage than the inverse relationship of gold to the U.S. dollar," said Peter Grandich, editor of the Grandich Letter, in a recent newsletter. "About 85% of the time, and certainly over a period of years, they move in opposite directions."

And "a currency is only as good as the country behind it," he said. "Socially, economically, politically ... America has never been in worse shape."
